Online Estate Auction at Your Location

At an online estate auction, the prices are determined by the competitive bidding that bidders do from their home and not in your house. We will come to you home and photograph all of the items to be sold. We will then type descriptions of those items and hold the online estate auction for approximately 9 days. The winner will then come to your home to pick up their items. We will handle all of this for you. Our fees for online estate auctions vary depending on the amount of work necessary to prepare and sell your items and the anticipated proceeds of the sale. Our fees are very competitive and usually set at 20% to 40%

Here are some good reasons to use the online estate auction method;

- Online estate auctions avoid having an inexperienced person pricing something high so it does not sell, or so low it sells right away for less money than it is worth.

- Competitive bidding means that you get top dollar on each item you sell.
- There is seldom anything left over after an auction.
- No hordes of people wandering through your house
- More people are exposed to your items in our online estate auctions
- We describe each item and often include several photographs. Most estate sale companies only take one photograph of an item and do not describe them as well as they should.
- When required, we have certified appraisers on our staff who can provide you with well-researched opinions on the value on an item.
